Bushiroad to Release NPB Card Game in April 2024

Name	Bushiroad Inc. (Securities Code: 7803)
Overview	Bushiroad announced at the Bushiroad New Year Presentation 2024 held at TOKYO DOME CITY HALL on January 6, 2024, that it will launch a new trading card game based on Nippon Professional Baseball (NPB) in April 2024.

About the trading card game	A new professional baseball trading card game approved by Nippon Professional Baseball Organization. Act as a team manager and select players to form your “Dream Order” and compete against others or assemble a collection of cards of your favorite players.
Game information	The game centers on bouts between pitchers and batters. There are four types of cards: player cards, tactical cards, team cards and time points. Create your own unique lineup using cards featuring your favorite teams or players. Take on the role of team manager, select your players, decide batting orders and claim victory with your “Dream Order!”
Release date	-12 types of starter decks to be released on April 20. Twelve starter decks—one for each NPB team—will be released. The starter decks are ready-made and come with a playmat, so you can jump into a match immediately upon purchase! -2 types of booster packs to be released on April 20. Booster packs for each NPB league—the Central League and Pacific League—will also be released. These booster packs include numerous standout players from the 2023 season as well as members of the World Baseball Classic championship team. Combine cards from booster packs with a starter deck to create your own “Dream Order!”
